ART GALLERY OF TORONTO

Annual Report
For the Year 1941

ANNUAL MEETING, MAY 9TH, 1942
THE ART GALLERY OF TORONTO
REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

WHY should art galleries function in war time?—"Because we should guard jealously all we have inherited from a long past, all we are capable of creating in a trying present, and all we are determined to preserve in the future."

This paragraph was taken from an unsigned article published in an American magazine, and I have set it down word for word as it seems to me to answer our question—"Why should art galleries function in war times?"

We stand for the preservation of our intellectual and spiritual resources. Art is the visible and imperishable expression of free minds and, therefore, typifies one of the great goals that we are fighting for. It is an escape from the present and a source of inspiration for the future.

The Art Gallery of Toronto was founded in 1900. The Grange House was acquired in 1910 and exhibitions were held there from time to time. Three galleries were added to the Grange House and opened in 1918. So you might say that the present Art Gallery dates from 1918, and we are 24 years old—a young gallery but a vigorous and ambitious one.

While we are called "The Art Gallery of Toronto" we are in a very real sense a provincial and national gallery. We lend many pictures and prints to institutions, schools and other galleries throughout Canada.

I have always felt that we, as a gallery, are altogether too modest in singing our own praises, and that it should be known that we possess, not only the finest collection of pictures by Canadian painters, but also many great pictures by world-famous artists, such as "The Descent from the Cross" by Peter Paul Rubens; "Portrait of a Man" by Hals; the famous Van Dyke—"Daedalus and Icarus" once in the collection of Lord Spencer at Althorp House; the great landscape painting by Gainsborough—"The Harvest Waggon"; a Van Orley; a fine Peter Brueghel, the Younger; paintings of the French Schools by Claude Lorraine, Monet, Pissarro, Renoir. Among our treasures are some of the finest works by Tom Thomson, Lawren Harris, J. E. H. MacDonald, A. Y. Jackson, Emily Carr, Albert Robinson; these are but a few of our rapidly growing collection. Then in our Sculpture Court we have two pieces by one of the greatest living sculptors—Mestrovic—the Jugo-Slavian—"The Mother at Prayer" and the bust of "Moses"; works by Rodin, Epstein, and Paulanship.

This year Queen's University conferred the honorary degree of LL.D. on a creative artist—A. Y. Jackson. Your Directors felt that this was a rather unique event in Canadian life and one that should be commemorated in some special way by the Art Gallery. We, therefore, tendered a complimentary dinner to Dr. Jackson, and had so many applications for places at the table that we had to turn a great many people away. The occasion was a red letter one in the life of the Art Gallery, and many favourable comments were heard as to the success of the evening.

From past experience we have found that the attendance at the Art Gallery exhibitions is in direct proportion to the popularity and the news value of our exhibitions. Your directors feel, therefore, that while our attendance dropped in 1941 this was largely due to the fact that in 1940 the attendance at the Red Cross show was unusually large. Our hope is that we will be able to obtain exhibitions of outstanding merit for the coming year in order that our attendance and membership will be maintained and increased.

It is, however, in the educational field that our growth is most noticeable. If we have not been able to take in more children it is not for lack of applications, over 1,000 of which came in for the Saturday Morning Classes alone. The Art Centre is steadily attracting wider interest and its classes for teachers, and leaders of children's groups, are in demand. Our staff too is in constant demand for consultation not only in Toronto but throughout Canada and still farther afield.

The Permanent Collection has been increased by a number of bequests, purchases and gifts—one of such outstanding importance that I should like to comment on it here. I refer to Gainsborough's "The Harvest Waggon". This is one of the finest landscapes of the 18th Century and has long been famous. It was presented to us last year by Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Wood. Nothing I can say can adequately express our appreciation of their continued generosity, but I know that you will all join me in expressing to Mr. Wood our thanks for his many gifts and interest, and also to him and his family our deepest sympathy with him in the loss of Mrs. Wood, his wife, a Founder Member of the Gallery, who died early this year.

We have to mourn too, the loss of Mr. E. R. Wood, also a Founder Member, and the donor of the "E. R. Wood Gallery."

I should also like to extend our sympathy to the families of those Members of the Gallery who have died since our last meeting and whose names appear in the report of the Membership Committee.

Our purchases have been confined entirely to the Canadian field and I should like to thank Mr. J. S. McLean, the Chairman of the Sub-Committee concerned and his Committee for their constant work and careful selection.

As an experiment last year, we redecorated the Square Gallery with a new form of wall covering, which we think has proved a success. As soon as funds permit we propose to extend this wall covering to the other galleries which are becoming increasingly shabby. We also cleaned and redecorated and furnished two reception rooms in Grange House to act as sitting rooms for visitors to the Gallery. This has proved very useful. Mr. Frederick W. Schumacher, of Columbus, Ohio, very generously gave the wall paper which is of early American design and was unobtainable in Canada.

In the autumn of 1941 we made a special appeal to our Founders, Benefactors and Life Members for subscriptions to reduce the annual deficit. They responded with gifts totalling over $2,000 and I take this opportunity of expressing our heartfelt thanks to those subscribers for their generosity.

I should like to express the thanks of the Gallery to the Mayor and the City Council for their continued interest, also to the Chief of Police and the Commissioner of Parks whose two departments co-operate so willingly in the public functions at the Gallery, and in the care of the grounds.

No gallery, in fact no public institution can function without the good-will of the press. This we have always had and our thanks are due to the daily and weekly papers who have been so generous with their space in reporting our activities.

Finally I should like to commend for your thanks the chairmen and members of the various working committees who carry the load of the actual direction and consultation in the Gallery's policies. The chairmen of these committees, together with the officers of the Gallery, form the executive to whom we are all indebted for their loyal services.

In conclusion I should like to express our thanks and appreciation of the splendid work of our Curator, Mr. Baldwin, and especially I would like to mention Mrs. Baldwin, who has always been keenly interested in all our activities.

Our thanks are due to our excellent staff and to the artists who have helped us by lectures and in other ways.

FILMS

Co-operating with the Toronto Branch of the National Film Society, three films were shown in January, February and March to Members of the Art Gallery. In October, November and December joint programmes for the members of both societies were arranged. These were so well attended that repeat performances had to be given.

Films were also shown independently on week ends during the "Britain at War" show.
